

PRESS RELEASE (long picture caption)

PR29

Monday 17 November, 2014

With photos

Principal gets a pie in the face for Children in Need

Ormiston Venture Academy held a readathon and a cake bake with a difference for Children In Need.

As well as being able to purchase cakes pupils were able to bid for the opportunity to smooch the principal and head girl with cream pies.

Principal Simon-Gilbert Barnham said: "The cream went up my nostrils but it was all for a good cause."

Year seven and eight pupils took part in a readathon with Annaliese Matheron is the author of The People's Book Prize finalist Ninja Nan and Sidekick Grandad.

ENDS

Photos:

A series of photos showing the pieing of Principal Simon Gilbert-Barnham and head girl Caitlin Chilvers

A photo of: Learning Resource Centre manager Carol Fisher in her superhero outfit at the readathon.

For further information contact Louisa Griffith-Jones at lgriffith-jones@ormistonventureacademy.co.uk