ORMISTON VENTURE ACADEMY

Venture Summer school 2017

During the summer holidays 131 new year 7 students participated in a week of exciting activities, all led by Venture staff, to assist their transition to secondary school. Each day there was a choice of sessions for students to attend including Cooking, Science, Team building, craft activities and sport.

Highlights from the week included students making their own candles and bath bomb with Mr Sewell and Mrs Thurtle, delicious chocolate oaties being made with Miss Reed, Mrs Watson and Miss Vincent, students developing their craft skills with Miss Bircham and Mrs Lane, bug hunting with Mr Burgess, Trampolining with Miss Ermini, dance with Miss Brand, murder mystery solving with Mrs Homer and Mr May and round robin football tournament with Mr Parker, Mr Bracewell, Miss Nichols and Miss Teasel. To finish the week students and staff had a fun filled day in the sun at Pleaseurewood Hills.

Simon Gilbert-Barnham, Principal said "Our Venture Summer School was another huge success with over 130 of our new year 7 students enjoying a wide range of exciting individual and team activities. Thank you to the staff who made such a fantastic week possible and we are looking forward to welcoming such an amazing group of young people into our Venture community in September.
